

Living at Providence Place gives peace of mind to both you and your family.

What is the criteria for Residential Living?

Finances: Eligible applicants demonstrate income sufficient to pay for the monthly rent.

Age: Prospective resident or partner must be at least 55 years of age.

Health: Applicants must be able to live safely in the community villas or apartments and live harmoniously in a community setting.

What is the residency process?

Contact the Leasing Director and select the type of residence and floorplan desired. Complete and return an Application for Residency. Once the Application for Residency is approved the staff at Providence Place will walk you through these steps:

- To reserve the residency of choice, a $500 deposit is required.
- Choose a move-in date. The Providence Place staff will assist in coordinating move-in details.
- Prior to move-in, you will schedule a time to sign agreements.
- Upon move-in, you will receive a thorough orientation of the community. Our residents and staff will make you feel at home right away.

Is Providence Place a continuing care retirement community (CCRC)?

Providence Place is not currently a CCRC, however, the community is in process of seeking CCRC licensure by the NC Department of Insurance.

Can my family and grandchildren stay overnight with me?

Yes, guests are welcome to stay in your home. To be considerate of other residents, guests are asked to keep visits to less than seven days.

May I bring a pet?

Yes. Some restrictions are given and a pet deposit fee is required.
